

Yerevan Dialogue Shaping Tomorrow Today

On May 26-27, Armenia will host the second edition of the Yerevan Dialogue, featuring the following topics:

- PEACE AND SECURITY DILEMMAS
- GLOBAL GEOPOLITICAL TRENDS
- TENDENCIES IN EU AND EU NEIGHBORHOOD
- GREEN DEVELOPMENT
- CONNECTIVITY: TRADE AND TRANSPORTATION
- AI POLITICS

Yerevan Dialogue serves as a platform bringing together policymakers, academics, civil society, and the private sector to deliberate and devise solutions to critical challenges of our times.

LASHA DARSALIA
Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs,
Georgia

DALIA GRYBAUSKAITĖ
Former President, Lithuania

XAVIER BETTEL
Vice Prime Minister,
Minister for Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade,
Minister for Development Cooperation and Humanitarian Affairs, Luxembourg

ARARAT MIRZOYAN
Minister of Foreign Affairs,
Armenia

The Dialogue brings the world's debates to Armenia to explore fresh ideas, answers, and opinions.

From climate change to conflict, technology to health, the dialogue aims to bring together multistakeholders from heads of states to students, and bridge critical gaps in ideation on how to take forward a world going through a tumultuous phase and demanding changes.

Yerevan Dialogue 2024 hosted over 300 international participants from more than 60 countries.
